VI. MATTER CALLING FOR ACTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

DECISION 14

Participation of associate members of regional commissions in the Conference and its preparatory process

"The Preparatory Committee, recalling General Assembly resolution 47/189 of 22 December 1992 by which the Assembly, inter alia, decided to establish a voluntary fund for the purpose of assisting small island developing States and the least developed countries to participate fully and effectively in the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States and General Assembly resolution 48/193 of 21 December 1993 by which the Assembly, inter alia, endorsed the Preparatory Committee's decision, taken at its organizational session of 16 April 1993, concerning the participation of associate members of regional commissions, as observers, in the Conference and its preparatory process, decides to recommend to the General Assembly that consistent with the purpose of the voluntary fund, the voluntary fund be applied to assist associate members of regional commissions to participate fully and effectively, as observers, in the Conference and its preparatory process."

VII. DECISIONS OF THE PREPARATORY COMMITTEE ON ITS RESUMED FIRST SESSION CALLING FOR ACTION BY THE CONFERENCE

56. At its resumed first session, the Preparatory Committee for the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States adopted 8 decisions which are before the Conference for its consideration and appropriate action, as follows:

DECISION 15

Rules of procedure of the Conference

The Preparatory Committee recommends to the Conference the following amendment to the draft rules of procedure of the Conference (A/CONF.167/PC/3):

Elections

Rule 6

The Conference shall elect from among the representatives of participating States the following officers: a President, nine Vice-Presidents plus an ex officio Vice-President from the host country, a Rapporteur-General and a Chairman for the Main Committee established in accordance with rule 46. These officials shall be elected on the basis of ensuring the representative character of the General Committee. The Conference may also elect such other officers as it deems necessary for the performance of its functions.

DECISION 16

High-level segment

The Preparatory Committee recommends to the Conference that the high-level segment should be open to participation at the Head of State or Government or Ministerial level. The high-level segment should last for one and one half days, from the morning of Thursday, 5 May, through the morning of Friday, 6 May 1994. Thursday will be devoted to a debate on the theme "Forging partnerships for sustainable development". Statements in the debate during the high-level segment should be limited to seven minutes. The Preparatory Committee also notes the intention of the host country to organize a round table for participants in the high-level segment on the morning of 6 May, and it invites the President of the Conference to report to the Conference on the results of the high-level segment and the round table in the form of a presidential summary prepared under his own authority.

DECISION 17

Decision on the organization and programme of work of the Conference

The Preparatory Committee takes note of the organization and programme of work of the Conference (A/CONF.167/PC/L.8).

DECISION 18

Decision on the proposals for a Barbados declaration

The Preparatory Committee requests the Secretary-General to transmit the text containing proposals for a Barbados declaration (A/CONF.167/PC/L.10) to the Conference for its consideration and appropriate action.

DECISION 19

Draft programme of action for the sustainable development of small island developing States

The Preparatory Committee requests the Secretary-General to transmit the draft programme of action for the sustainable development of small island developing States, as amended during the resumed first session of the Preparatory Committee, to the Conference for its consideration and appropriate action.

DECISION 20

Report on current donor activities

The Preparatory Committee requests the Secretary-General to transmit a revised version of the report on current donor activities in support of sustainable development in small island developing States to the Conference for its consideration and appropriate action.
